

Otters capture 2018 OAPBA championship

Second title for Jonathan Stillwell's team

Whatever 1b Joey Votto was the OAPBA MVP in 2018

Otters righthander Jacob deGrom's performance down the stretch was a key factor in the Otters 2018 championship.

Reliever of the Year Tommy Kahnle led an awesome bullpen for the runner-up Road Warriors.

Here's what happened in OAPBA in 2018:

The Otters won their second title in the past four seasons, capturing both halves and pre-empting a World Series.

Seeking their first appearance in the World Series, Marc Bostrom's Road Warriors missed winning the first half by one game and finished two games out in the second half.

What 1b Joey Votto made a spirited bid for the Triple Crown, leading the league in batting average and home runs, and finishing third in RBIs. Votto was a unanimous MVP pick.

Whatever righty Zach Greinke was the league's only starter to win 10 games (10-4, 3.64, 106 strikeouts), but Otter righty Jacob deGrom was the league's Cy Young winner.

Complete games became a rarity with only three complete games recorded in during the 2018 season, two of them shutouts.

Scooter Gennett set new league mark with nine pinch-hit home runs, breaking Chris Davis (Road) year-old record in the first half with seven PH homers while playing with the Devils.

One of the league's storied franchises, the Taz Devils, pinned their hopes on a mostly left-handed starting pitching staff, only to suffer their worst record in the franchise's 25-year history.

Jonathan Stilwell's Otters win second championship in 2018 Otters win both halves; top OAPBA standings with overall 50-30 record

2018 was the Year of the Otters in OAPBA with Jonathan Stilwell's Otters (50-30) prevailing in both halves and pre-empting the 2018 World Series in a championship season. The Otters led by the same core group that led the Otters to their first championship in 2015, had to battle hard to win both halves, but were able to maneuver past challenges by Marc Bostrom's Road Warriors (45-34) and Walt Taylor's WhatEVERs (44-36) to win the '18 crown.

The Otters edged Marc Bostrom's Road Warriors by one game in the first half and held off a second half surge by Walt Taylor's WhatEVERs to win the second half by two games ahead of the Whats and three games ahead of the Road Warriors. By comparison, Stilwell's first championship team in 2015 won both halves by five games in each half and finished 55-25, one of the best records ever recorded in a single season in OAPBA.

Many of the same players who were instrumental in the Otters 2015 title continued to play leading roles in the '18 Otters outstanding season. The eight players who were members of the Otters team that won in 2015 included CF Mike Trout, C Salvador Perez, 1b Freddie Freeman, 3b Anthony Rendon, CF Christian Yelich, LF Khris Davis and starters Jacob deGrom and Stephen Strasburg.

Jonathan Stilwell won his second OAPBA championship in 2018. Jonathan's first title came in 2014.

Since 2015, the Otters resume includes two league championships and, in 2017, runner-up to the Taz Devils, who beat the Otters in the World Series four games to two.

During past four seasons, the Otterman Empire has compiled a 184-137, .573 record, the best record in the league, including two championships. Only Walt Taylor's WhatEVERs (171-149, .535) have come close to matching the Otters achievements from 2015-2018.

MVP Joey Votto almost wins Triple Crown

Whatever 1b Joey Votto had a career season in 2018, leading OAPBA in almost all of the key batting categories and falling only five RBIs short of winning the Triple Crown.

Votto won the league batting title at .319, led in OBP (.447) and slugged a league-leading 29 home runs. He totaled 92 hits, including 22 doubles and drove in 52 runs, finishing only five RBIs behind RBI leaders Nolan Arenado of the Road Warriors and What teammate Giancarlo Stanton, who tied for most RBIs with 57. His

On defense, Votto was one of the top fielding first basemen in the league, committing only two errors.

Otters Jacob deGrom and Road Warriors Tommy Kahnle win top pitching honors

Righthander Jacob deGrom, the mainstay of the Otter starting rotation, earned Cy Young honors in 2018. DeGrom was 6-2 and had a league-leading 2.86 ERA and struck out 117 batters to rank third in OAPBA.

DeGrom was particularly tough down the stretch for the Otters. In his final three starts, he kept the Furry Ones in the game against Cory Kluber in what turned into a 5-2 win (a no-decision for DeGrom). In his next start, he beat the Whats Justin Verlander 6-3 and in his final start of the season, beat the Road Warriors 10-2 to clinch a tie for the pennant.

Road Warrior RHP Tommy Kahnle was a surprise winner as Reliever of the Year. The righthander was almost untouchable, recording a 1.05 ERA in 30 appearances, striking out 37 batters in 34.7 innings and walking only seven batters.

OAPBA finishes 31st season in 2018.

OAPBA operated as a five-team league in 2018.

The league continued with an 80-game schedule (two 40-game halves) with the winners of the two halves playing in the World Series. If a team won both halves, they captured the league title without a World Series. The trading period at the halfway point was retained.

Because of the small number of teams and the quality of talent drafted for each team, the league resembled an All-Star league in 2018.

Rosters were maintained at 33 players with three players designated as “developmental players” that were required to remain inactive for the entire season. Each team maintained an active player pool of 30 players with 25 players designated as active for each individual series. Along with forwarding lineups for each game in an upcoming series, managers identified, in advance, which five players were designated inactive for the series.

The designated development squad players and ineligible to play during the season. Development squad players were allowed to be traded, but could not be added to their new team’s 30-man active squad (i.e. development squad players could only be traded for development squad players and were required to remain on developmental status).

Players designated J-4, if designated as an active player, were required to remain on a team’s active 25-man roster for the entire season.

Pitchers continued to be limited to their average batters faced per appearance on top of the Q-factor fatigue rule. As a result, complete games continued to be rare in 2018.

For relievers, only the closer designation remained in effect. Closers were designated by the use the save ratio of .30 to 1.00 to classify closers (number of saves divided by the number of appearances or saves/appearances).

All pitchers were limited to their average batters faced per appearance. Starting pitchers were allowed a 10% increase in that total (batters faced number divided by the number of starts multiplied by 1.1 represented by the formula $BF/starts \times 1.1$) rounded up if the number was .5 or higher, round down if the number was .499 or less.

Starters were required to leave a game once they face their maximum number of batters, with the exception of facing their last batter with two outs in an inning. Starters were allowed to finish an inning, but penalized five points for each batter faced after reaching their batters faced limit. The rule allowing pitchers to complete a shutout was maintained.

Relief pitchers were allowed one extra batter over their average batters faced, except with two outs. Then a reliever were allowed to get the last out, but with a penalty of five points for each additional batter faced.

In the draft, each of the five teams drafted from one MLB team from the American League from which to select players and a last place team from the National League.

The draft order for the 2018 remained in reverse order of finish from the previous season. The 2018 draft order was 1. Road Warriors, 2.

2018 Regular Season

First half: Otters win four of five in final series to edge Warriors by one game

Jonathan Stilwell's Otters roared out of the gate with a 15-5 start, but saw their first half pennant hopes nearly evaporate, losing nine of their last 11 games. The Otters, however, won when they had to win, defeating the Whatevers four games to one in the Otters final series to clinch the first half title.

Matching the Otters fast start, Marc Bostrom's Road Warriors took three of five from the Beefers to open the season and then won nine of their next 10 games to start the first half at 12-3. Even after dropping three of five to the slumping Beefers and three of five in a key series at the Otters, the Roadies, just after the midway point, were 16-9, deadlocked with the Otters, who had an identical 16-9 record.

As the first half moved into its stretch run, the Road Warriors could not get untracked, losing three of five to the Taz Devils, dropping to 18-12. In a key series against the Otters, at home in Moss Park, the Roadies lost three of five to fall to 20-15 while the Otters once again caught the Roadies and moved into an exact tie at 20-15.

With 10 games left in the season for the Otters and Road Warriors, the Whatevers held the key to whoever was going to win the first half, facing the Otters at home and the Road Warriors at Moss Park. Both the Otters and Whats had identical records at 17-13 with ten 10 games remaining.

The Otters knocked off the Whats in four of five at Whoville Park to finish 24-16. The Road Warriors, with the home field advantage, lost three of five to the Whats, to finish one game short, dropping the Roadies one game shy of the Otters, who finished 24-16 to win the first half.

Second half: Otters hang on to win second half by two games over surging Whatevers

The Otters, Road Warriors and Whatevers all started fast in the second half, immediately signaling that the second half race was going to be a battle royal.

The Otters started by winning four of five from the Beefs, then swept five from the Taz Devils, who started the second half with a ten-game losing streak, and winning 8-4 in the opener of key series at home against the Road Warriors, making it seven wins in a row and an 10-1 start.

The Whatevers got off to 7-3 start, pummeling the Beefers in four of five games to open the second half, holding the Beefs to a .189 BA in the series while closer Corey Gearrin picked up three saves and Joey Votto was 8-20, .400 with two doubles, a pair of homers and five RBI.

In their second series, the Whats won the final three games at the Devil Dome with SS Francisco Lindor leading the way, going 9-21 with seven runs scored, eight RBIs and 3 home runs.

The Road Warriors opened by taking four of five from the Taz Devils in their first series and then knocking the Beefers out of the race with a five-game sweep to give the Roadies a 9-1 record. After dropping the opener in their first series against the Otters, the Roadies won three of the next four, boosting their record to 12-3.

The Roadies continued to play well, winning six of their next eight games to improve to 18-5. However, from that point forward, the Warriors began to wobble and watched their lead melt away. The Otters kept the pressure on, winning three of five in each of their next two series, rolling over the Tazzies and the Beefers.

Lurking in the wings were Walt Taylor's Whatevers, overlooked during the early going in the second half. The What started out 7-3, grinding out wins over the hapless Beefers and Taz Devils, but lost three of five at the Otters to fall to 9-6. The Whats then won three of five at home against the Beefers and took three more wins at Moss Park against the Road Warriors to improve to 15-10.

After their 14-6 start to the second half, the Otters took three of five from the Tazzies at the Devil Dome to improve to 17-8, but then hit some turbulence on the road, losing three of five at the Beefers, making the Otters 19-11. The Roadies failed to capitalize on the Otters setback and lost the final three games of a five-game series to the beleaguered Beefers. After taking the first two games, the Road Warriors hit only .089 (8-90) over the final three games of the series as the hapless Beefers benefited from outstanding pitching performances by Cory Kluber, Max Scherzer and Trevor Bauer. The series loss dropped the Warriors into an exact tie with the Otters at 19-11.

The Whats, with their 15-10 record and an outside chance at the pennant, saw their hopes dwindle, losing three of five to both the Otters and the Road Warriors, falling to only three games over .500 at 19-16. With only one series left, the Whats penant hopes were faint, at best. As things turned out, however, the Whats still had something left in the tank.

With the second half series --and the league championship-- on the line, the Otters traveled to Moss Park, where the Otters pitching was the difference as they took four of five from the Road Warriors to clinch the second half. Otter righty Stephen Strasburg threw a 3-1 complete game one-hitter in the opener. In Game Two, James Paxton combined with three relievers to blank the Road Warriors 4-0 on four hits. In the third game, Freddie Freeman homered early to give the Otters an early lead and Jacob deGrom fired seven scoreless innings as the Otters won 10-2. The Roadies rebounded for a 3-2, 11-inning win in the fourth game, but the Otters went on to win a rain-delayed 5-2 decision in the finale, to capture the second half and the 2018 championship.

The Whatevers took advantage of the Road Warriors slide (four losses in the Warriors final six contests), sweeping the Taz Devils in the final series of the season for both teams. The five-game sweep lifted the Whats past the Road Warriors, dropping the Warriors into third place at 23-17, while the Whats finished the second half at 24-16, two games behind the Otters and one game ahead of the Road Warriors.

2018 All Star team

Whatever 1b Joey Votto was a runaway selection for OAPBA MVP, getting a unanimous vote as the league's top position player. Votto led the league in almost every single major batting category, just missing a Triple Crown when he finished tied for fifth in the league with 52 RBIs, five behind All-Stars Nolan Arenado of the Road Warriors and Giancarlo Stanton of the Whatevers.

Making the All-Star team for the fourth straight year was two-time MVP Mike Trout, CF for the Otters. LF Kris Bryant, who split his season between the Beefers and Devils, earned All-Star honors for the second time as did Whatever RF Giancarlo Stanton

First time All-Stars included Otters C Salvador Perez, Whatevers SS Francisco Lindor, Road Warriors 3b Nolan Arenado, Pitcher of the Year Jacob deGrom of the Otters and Road Warriors middle reliever Tommy Kahnle. The 2018 OAPBA All-Star featured six unanimous selections and several repeat All-Stars

OAPBA team by team 2018

Otters 50-30, .625. First half 24-16, .600 +1 game. Second half 26-14, .650, +2 games

The Otters relied on a veteran nucleus to carry them to the 2018 title. The Otters jumped out to early leads in both halves and, while threatened in both halves by the Road Warriors and Whatever's, fended off their primary competition to win the '18 crown without having to undergo a World Series.

An imaginative draft move by manager Jonathan Stilwell was the acquisition of Nola, who was acquired in the first round of the draft. Eschewing their first-round pick from the American League, Stilwell surprised the league by drafting the last-place Phillies from the National League, a move no other manager had contemplated. The draft selection outflanked the rest of the league and was instrumental in the Otters winning the title.

Manager Jonathan Stilwell's bold draft move to acquire pitcher Aaron Nola from the last-place Phillies in the 2018 draft was a key factor in the Otters championship. The Otters won their second championship in four years by winning both halves and had a combined 50-30 record.

The Otters starting pitching was the best in the league throughout the season with veterans Jacob deGrom (6-2, 2.86, 117 strikeouts) and Stephen Strasburg

(8-5, 3.36, 108 strikeouts) and newcomer Aaron Nola (8-3, 3.23) leading the way, backed up by righties Luis Castillo (5-2, 2.44) and James Paxton (5-2, 3.51). The combined Otters starting staff 3.26 ERA was more than a run-and-a-half better than any other starting staff in the league.

Longtime Otter closer Ken Giles (11 saves, 2.31) combined with Wade Davis (7 saves, 2.42) to provide excellent closing relief for the champs.

Veteran team leader 1b Freddie Freeman (.291, 22 HR, 52 RBI) was once again the heart of the Otters attack. 3b Anthony Rendon (.281, 12 HR, 54) complemented Freeman in the middle of the Otter batting order. LF Khris Davis offered an always-dangerous presence, hammering 15 home runs. 2b Daniel Murphy (.292, 24 RBIs) provided timely hitting and CF Mike Trout, limited in games, was terrific when available, hitting .286 while pounding 12 HR. C Salvador Perez surprised with 13 HR and 34 RBIs. The Otters also got a power boost from newcomer Rhys Hoskins (11 HR, 25 RBIs). Underrated SS Jean Segura hit .290 while Trea Turner added speed on the bases with 10 SB.

Road Warriors 46-34, .575. First half 23-17, .575 -1 game. Second half 23-17, .575, -3 games.

Bolstered by the assembly of a monster bullpen and a marvelous part-time performance by RF Bryce Harper, the Road Warriors came close in 2018. The Roadies fell short by only a single game in the first half and, after suffering a late season slump in the second half, finishing three games out. Even though they did not win either half, it was a terrific season for the Road Warriors, who threatened in both halves.

Known as a running team for the past few years, the Warriors relied more on power in 2018, second in the league with 129 home runs, just four less than the champion Otters. Topping the power parade was 3b Nolan Arenado (.258, 19 HR, 57 RBI, tied for league lead). 1b Anthony Rizzo only hit .174, but when he did hit, he made it count, slamming 17 HR and driving in 44 runs. C Gary Sanchez (13 HR) and SS Corey Seager (.252, 13 HR, 29 RBI) both added to the power surge.

Manager Marc Bostrom came close to winning in both halves, only to be thwarted by the Otters. Even though the Warriors did not make the playoffs, the team's 46-34 record was their best showing since 2012 (47-33) and their second winning or .500 season in the past four years.

RF Bryce Harper, who only played in 54 games, was outstanding, hitting .365 with a .463 OBP and .655 slugging percentage. Limited to only 148 AB, Harper hit 10 HR and drove in 31 runs while scoring 27 times. Keké Hernandez, in part-time duty, shone, hitting .358 with 8 HR and 20 RBI in 95 at bats.

On the hill, the Road Warriors were one quality starter short, which was a big factor in their quest for the '18 title. Lance Lynn led the Warrior starters with a 8-4, 3.66 season. The remaining starters, however, were only average. Sonny Gray (5-4, 5.43) was erratic, as were Kenta Maeda (4-4, 3.82), Luis Severino (4-5, 4.75) and Jake Arrieta (4-7, 5.65). A pleasant surprise was Dylan Bundy (3-2, 3.96 in only seven starts.

The Warriors strength was a deep bullpen that posted a combined 2.22 ERA. Bostrom made good use of the relief corps to offset the team's lack of quality starters, making the call to the bullpen a league-leading 223 times.

Four of the Roadie relievers had ERAs below 2.00, led by Tommy Kahnle (1.05 in 30 appearances), Richard Bleir (1.27), Mychal Givens (1.56) and veteran David Robertston (1.74 in 27 outings). Closer Kenley Jansen (4-2, 7 saves, 32 appearances) was solid while Brad Brach (2.79), Adam Warren (3.10) and Chad Green (5-2, 3.44) rounded out the mighty Warrior bullpen.

Whatevers 44-36, .550. First half 20-20, .500 -4 games. Second half 24-16, 600, -2 games.

The Whatevers enjoyed another successful campaign in 2018 winding up third in the overall league standings. A strong finish in the second half, with seven wins in their final nine games, elevated the Whats into second place in the second half standings, finishing only two games behind the Otters.

The Whatevers powerful Big Three, 1b Joey Votto, SS Francisco Lindor and RF Giancarlo Stanton, gave the Whats enormous power in the middle of their batting order. Longtime What great Joey Votto was outstanding, hitting .319, .447 OBP, 29 HR, 52 RBI, while scoring 61 runs and leading OAPBA in total bases. The slick-fielding Lindor showed unexpected power on offense (.232, 23 HR, 47 RBI) and played outstanding defense in the middle of the infield. Stanton (.240, .344 OBP, 21 HR) tied for the league lead in RBIs with 57.

Versatile utilityman Marwin Gonzalez (.253, 12 HR, 30 RBI) and CF George Springer (.239, 11 HR, 36 RBI) complemented the Big Three.

On the mound, Whatevers starting pitching was not exceptional, but certainly good enough to keep the opposition in check until the bullpen could restore order.

Zack Greinke (10-4, 3.64) continued as the Whats top starter and was the only starter to chalk up double figures in wins. Carlos Carrasco (4-5, 4.36) was effective, for the most part. Brad Peacock (5-4, 5.50), lefty Dallas Keuchel (4-4, 5.02), and veteran Justin Verlander (2-6, 5.20) rounded out the Whatever rotation.

The Whatever bullpen made up for any starting weaknesses combining for a team bullpen ERA of 3.0 and leading the league with 22 saves. Middle reliever Chris Devenski (2-1, 1.62, 31 appearances) and Dellin Betances (2-2, 2.13, 31 appearances) both delivered exceptional performances to keep the Whats in close games. Closer Cory Gearrin (2-3, 2.73, 15 saves) proved to be a reliable closer and led OAPBA with 22 saves.

Under manager Walt Taylor, the Whatevers have enjoyed remarkable success in the 21st century with a winning record in eleven of the last 12 seasons. Since 2006, Taylor has compiled an outstanding 612-446, .578 record and won three league titles (2006, 2007 and 2016).

Beefers 32-48, .400. First half 16-24, .400 -8 games. Second half 16-24, .400 -10 games

With the standout pitching duo of Cory Kluber and Max Scherzer, Beefers had high hopes for 2018. Instead, the '18 season turned into a meltdown, with the Beefs finishing in the cellar in the first half and struggling to improve to fourth place in the second half.

Overall, the team had a 32-48 record that was notable only because of its consistency, but the Beefers found themselves consistently on the short side of the score.

The Beefs had identical 16-24 records in both the first and second halves and went 16-24 records at home and on the road. For Beefer fans, it was a continuation of a losing pattern that has plagued the team since their last winning season in 2014.

Kluber was, indeed, the ace of the Beefer staff at 7-3, 4.07, but allowed 19 home runs. His wingman, Max Scherzer was 0-7 after the first half and wound up 5-10, 4.00, giving up 17 homers. Trevor Bauer (5-4, 4.20) was a mild surprise, but Kyle Hendricks (4-6, 4.32) and lefty Rich Hill (5-5, 5.40) were inconsistent. Mike Clevinger's performance was disastrous, going 1-8, 8.80 as a starter and part-time reliever.

The Beefer bullpen, particularly the middle relievers, were suspect, even before the season began, and lived up to everyone's lack of expectations, going 5-12 with a puffy 3.30 ERA. Closer Cody Allen (1-2, 1.23, 9 saves) was able to hold onto leads during the few times the Beefers led late in games in the first half, before giving way to mid-season acquisition Craig Kimbrel.

Reliever Nick Goody (0-3, 5.84) was battered time after time while Dan Otero (0-0, 5.83) was dealt to the Devils in mid-season in a deal that landed closer Craig Kimbrel (0-1, 3.45, 8 saves), whose performance during the second half was only mediocre. Middle reliever Joe Smith (2-1, 3.81, gave up nine HR in 30.7 innings).

The biggest bat in the Beefer lineup was RF J.D. Martinez, who slammed 27 HR while driving in a team high 54 RBIs while hitting .246. 2b Jose Ramirez had an outstanding season (.289, 15 HR, 51 RBIs and 23 doubles).

CF Lorenzo Cain (.265, .331 OBP, 7 HR) reeled off a 15-game hit streak in mid-season. Multi-talented Javier Baez (.267, 11 HR) was explosive at times, as was SS Carlos Correa (.247, 13 HR). 1b Eric Hosmer (.214, 10 HR, 39 RBIs) was exceptional on defense. 3b Justin Turner, who hit four homers in a single game in the opening series against the Devils only hit two more home runs the remainder of the season and wound up hitting .234

The Beefers had the worse defense in the league, committing 87 errors.

Taz Devils 28-52, .350. First half 17-23, .425, -7 games. Second half 11-29, .275, -15 games.

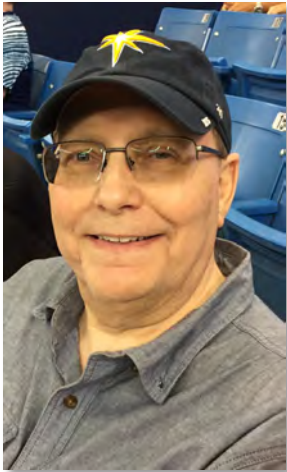

The Taz Devils, recognizing the need to adopt some kind of different approach in order to have a chance of finishing high in the standings adopted a lefty-centric pitching staff in 2018. With Chris Sale, Drew Pomeranz, Clayton Kershaw and Madison Bumgarner, the Devils went all in with lefty starters, relying on them to challenge for the title.

The lefty strategy fell marvelously short of expectations, however, and the Tazzies suffered through the worst campaign in the franchise's 25-year history. The Devils got off to a slow start in both halves and were quickly out of each of the two races, highlighted by a team-record 10-game losing streak to begin the half. The team was out of the pennant races in each of the two halves by their fourth series and wound up playing for pride the rest of the campaign.

Devils manager Dave Larson endured the team's worst showing in team history (28-52), banking on left-handed pitching, a move that failed to pay off.

The most reliable starter in the Devils rotation turned out to be a righthander Charlie Morton, who was 4-5, 3.08 with two combined shutouts.

Altogether, the Tazzies starters had a combined 5.02 ERA and gave up 111 home runs, the only starting staff to give up triple figures in HR allowed. The Devils bullpen results were equally as dismal with a combined 4.27 ERA and 42 home runs allowed, also the league's worst in 2018.

Combined, the five lefty starters for the Devils went 16-32, .581 while giving up 92 home runs in 363.7 innings. Even Devils stalwart Clayton Kershaw (6-3, 4.48) felt the pain, giving up 21 home runs. Fireballer Chris Sale (4-10, 5.35, 21 home runs) and Drew Pomeranz (3-9, 6.28, league-leading 25 home runs) simply were unable to fend off the righty-powered lineups of the three leading teams. Jon Lester, acquired from the Whats, had a nightmare campaign, (1-6, 11.65 ERA and 10 home runs allowed in only 31.7 innings). Part-time starter Madison Bumgarner, acquired from the Road Warriors in the off-season, was 2-4, 4.62 with 15 home runs allowed in 50 innings.

On a more positive note, the Devils offense showed occasional firepower.

2b Jose Altuve (.289, .368 OB, 9 HR, 30 RBIs) racked up 88 hits and walked 33 times and led the league with 18 stolen bases. Newcomer CF Odubel Herrera hit .282 in limited action and 3b-OF Kris Bryant, obtained from the Beefs for closer Craig Kimbrel, hit .271, hit 13 homers, and drove in 28 runs, all in the second half.

Longtime 1b Paul Goldschmidt got off to a miserable start and finished only hitting .209, but hit 14 homers and drove in a team-leading 38 RBIs. 3b Josh Donaldson slumped, hitting only .175 while hitting 13 HR and driving in 33 runs. Goldschmidt struck out 74 times and Donaldson 65 times.

An entertaining sidebar to the Devils last-place finish was the remarkable clutch performance of 2b Scooter Gennett, who delivered seven pinch-hit home runs in the first half before being dealt to the Whatever's in an effort to try and change things around for the second half.

Scouting mission

Taz Devils manager Dave Larson and Whatever's skipper Walt Taylor joined with former Titans manager Dave Mitchell on August 14 at Tropicana Field to scout prospects from the Cleveland Indians and Tampa Bay Rays for 2019. Dave and Walt were joined, at one point, by the Rays popular DJ Kitty (who was deemed a non-prospect).

2018 OAPBA Notes

Infielder Scooter Gennett sets new league record for pinch-hit home runs in a single season.

Road Warrior Chris Davis's record five pinch-hit home runs in 2017 lasted only a half-season as Scooter Gennett, who started the season with the Devils and wound up with the Whatervers, broke Davis' record in the first half slugging seven pinch-hit home runs for the TazMen.

After being traded to the WhatEVERS at mid-season, Gennett added to his new record with two more pinch-hit clouts, totaling nine for the season, a record that may stand up for a long time.

Devils 10-game losing streak torpedoes second half chances

The Taz Devils were out of the second half race before they knew what hit them, losing ten games in a row before pounding out their frustrations with a 12-5 win against the WhatEVERS to snap their losing streak..

The Beefers swept the Devils in their first series of the second half, winning the first two games by identical 4-1 scores and then taking the last three games by identical 5-2 scores. The Devils left a combined total of 44 left on base in the series and were overwhelmed by Beefer SS Carlos Correa, who hit four home runs in the five games.

The Tazzie losing streak continued through their second series, as they lost five in a row at the Otters scenic Oshkosh Field in Altamonte Springs. The Otters pounded out five home runs in the opener to win 7-6 and then held the Devils to only seven runs over the final four games. The Devils came close to snapping the streak in Game Three, but Otter OF Rhys Hoskins slammed a dramatic two-run HR off Devils closer Andrew Miller with two out in the bottom of the ninth to lift the Otters to an improbable 2-1 come-from-behind win.

Pitchers named Luis had a monopoly on complete game shutouts

Only two complete game shutouts were thrown OAPBA in 2018. Both were thrown by righthanded pitchers named Luis and on the losing end of each of the two shutouts were the Beefers.

The Otters Luis Castillo opened the 2018 campaign with a 4-0 complete game shutout of the Beefs. Eight games later, Castillo almost made it two complete game shutouts in a row, blanking the Beefers for seven when Ken Giles took over to finish a 1-0 shutout defeat against luckless Max Scherzer, who lost his fourth straight game.

Later in the first half, Road Warrior Luis Severino tossed a 2-0 shutout against the Bovines, edging Rich Hill.

Beefers Justin Turner and J.D. Martinez each hit four homers in a game

Beefer 3b Justin Turner tied a league record with four home runs in a single game in a 27-3 win over the Devils in the first half. Turner, who only had six HRs for the entire season, connected three times off lefty Drew Pomeranz and hit his final HR off Devils reliever Brandon Workman. Turner drove in seven runs with his four HR outburst. Included in Turner's explosion were a three-run HR, a two-run HR and two solo clouts.

In the second half, Beefer RF J.D. Martinez hit four consecutive home runs, but the home run barrage was all for naught as the Beefer lost to the Taz Devils 12-9. Martinez' first two homers were two-run blasts and the final pair of home runs were solo shots. In the five-game series against the Devils, at the Beefer Bowl, Martinez connected for a total of eight home runs, two doubles and 12 RBIs.

Prior to 2018, three OAPBA batters had hit four home runs in a game:

Rondell White, Crusaders v Devils 1998

Richard Hidalgo, Dairy Kings v Devils, G 23, 2001, (13 innings)

Barry Bonds, Highlanders v. Platoon, G 31, 2002

- The 2018 got underway at 9:20 a.m, Saturday, March 28 as the Devils pounded the Beefers 10-9, jumping out to a 10-2 lead and barely hanging on for a 10-9 win at the Beefer Bowl. The season concluded October 28 with the Otters and Devils concluding a rain-delayed series via Skype, a 5-2 Otter victory.

- A key to the Otters success in 2018 was their ability to compile winning records against their primary competition. Against the contending Road Warriors and Whatevers, the Otters were 23-17. The Otters overwhelmed the tail-enders, the Beefers and Taz Devils, piling up a 27-13 record against the league's bottom two teams.

- The Road Warriors and Otters combined for 20 home runs in a second half series at Frank Selee Field. The Roadies slammed nine home runs and the Otters 11 clouts, but the Roadies won the series three games to two. Anthony Rizzo hit three homers for the Roadies and Byron Buxton hit two HRs in the Warriors series win. Eight different players homered for the power-deep Otters, including three HRs by Anthony Rendon and a pair of home runs by C Salvador Perez.

- Devils 3b Adrian Beltre, who spent most of his career with the Beefers before being traded to the Devils in the off-season, slammed a pair of three-run homers against his old mates, as the Devils overwhelmed the Beefs 9-2 in a first-half win. Beltre hit a third HR in the series in Game Five, a 4-1 win by southpaw Madison Bumgarner. In mid-season, Beltre returned to the Beefers to finish his career, traded to the Beefs along with reliever Craig Kimbrel and OF Austin Jackson for reliever Danny Otero and LF-3b Kris Bryant and OF Nick Williams.

- Otter righty Luis Castillo made his OAPBA debut a memorable one with a 4-0 complete game shutout against the Beefers in the first half. Castillo retired the first 18 Beefs in a row before Lorenzo Cain singled in the seventh, only to be thrown out at home, on a scoring attempt, by Otter LF Khris Davis. Castillo went on to finish with a complete game, allowing only three singles, striking out 11 and walking one batter. In his second start

- Whatever righty Zach Greinke won four of his 10 wins against the Beefers in 2018. Geinke was 4-0 against the Beefers for the season.

- MVP Joey Votto slugged four home runs in the Whats home series against the Otters in the second half, but the Otters prevailed in the series, taking three of five.

- In their second meeting of the Whats and Otters, at the Otters Frank Selee Field site, Otters LF Khris Davis was the difference-maker, homering three times in the series, including a walk-off HR off two-run HR in the bottom of the ninth off What reliever Cory Gearrin, lifting the Ottersto an important series by a three games to two margin. In the same series, the Whats Giancarlo Stanton hit a walk-off blast off Otter reliever Nick Vnicent in the 13th inning for a 7-6 What in Game Two

- Reliable Otter reliever Ken Giles lost two games, both at home, to the Whats in the first half. Giles gave up a 10th inning RBI single to Alex Bregman in a 7-6 10-inning loss and two games later, gave up a pair of runs in the ninth, a 5-3 loss.

- Road Warriors Kenta Maeda and Jake Arrieta threw back-to-back combined shutouts against the Devils in the second half. Maeda combined with Mychal Givens and Kenley Jansen for a 3-0 three-hitter in Game One. Arrieta followed, in Game Two with another 3-0 three-hitter, combining with Adam Warren, Brad Brach and David Robertson for the Roadies second straight shutout. The Devils gained a measure of revenge the series finale when Charlie Morton and Raisel Iglesias combined for a tense 1-0 shutout win that averted a Roadie sweep.

- Dramatic finish. In a game with playoff implications late in the second half, Road Warrior C Gary Sanchez hit a dramatic pinch-hit HR in the ninth inning off What reliever Dellin Betances to win a 5-4 contest. After a three-run HR by Road C Wellington Castillo had given the Warriors an early 4-0 lead, the Whats had stormed back against the tough Roadies bullpen to tie the game before Sanchez regained the lead for the Roadies.

- Near no-hitter. Otter Stephen Strasburg fired a 3-1, complete game one-hitter, striking out 11 to open an important second half five-game series at Moss Park. Otter LF Khris Davis hit a two-run homer in the 8th inning to break a 1-1 tie and give the Otters the win. The only Roadie hit was a first-inning single by LF Brett Gardner. In the second game of the series, Davis followed with another key home run to help James Paxton, with assistance from the Otter bullpen, shut out the Warriors 4-0 on only four hits.

The most recent no-hitter in OAPBA occurred in the 2016 season when Road Warrior Shelby Miller no-hit the Taz Devils 7-0.

- The Otters captured the league HR title for the third consecutive season hitting 133 longballs. They also led the league in runs scored for the second year on a row, tallying 383 runs, compared to 411 runs scored by the Otters in 2017.

- Taz Devils pitchers won their fourth straight strikeout crown, fanning 696 batters. The Taz Devils also had a penchant for giving up the long ball. Their 153 home runs allowed were only three short of the league record of 156 HRs (Whatevers, 2001).

- The Road Warriors set a new league mark with 718 strikeouts by their batters, breaking the old league record set by the Taz Devils (706 strikeouts, 2010).

- D-fence. The Beefers allowed the most errors for the fourth straight season, booting 87 chances. Marc Bostrom's Road Warriors had the best defense, committing 56 errors.

- Joey Votto's .319 batting average was the highest in OAPBA since the Whatevers David Wright hit .322 in 2013. His .447 OBP was the highest in the league since Travelers' Barry Bonds (.520, 2005). Votto's 29 home runs were the most in the league since the Mambo Kings Gary Sheffield belted 40 HRs in 2004.

- Endurance. Taz Devils reliever Addison Reed led the league in appearances (36) for the second straight season. Reed appeared in 40 games in 2017.

- Beefer Max Scherzer was 0-7 in the first half. Old Blue Eye had a 3.71 ERA in the first half and allowed 11 HR in eight starts. His only poor performance game against the Devils late in the first half when he allowed all nine runs in a 9-2 Tazzie blowout win.

- We have lift-off. Road Warrior Sonny Gray's six wild pitches were the most in the league since 2010, when Beefer Kevin Millwood also launched six wild ones

- Road Warrior 1b Anthony Rizzo tied for the league lead in HBP (10) for the second straight season. Rizzo was plunked eight times in 2017, when he also tied for the most HBP in the league.

Otters CF Mike Trout only saw limited action, but was a force when he was in the lineup. Trout hit .286, .429 OBP and .536 slugging percentage. He hit 12 HR and 27 RBI and scored 43 runs and played outstanding defense.

2018 Draft

The 2018 draft was modified to order to allow the entrance of more players from different teams onto league rosters.

The draft was expanded to two rounds, with teams drafting one of the 15 teams in the American League plus the addition of drafting from one of the six last place teams in the 2017 MLB standings: Baltimore, Detroit, Oakland in the American League and Philadelphia, Cincinnati, and San Francisco in the National League.

The first round of the draft went predictably until the fourth pick, when Jonathan Stilwell creatively selected the last-place Philadelphia Phillies with his first pick.

Stilwell's selection caused a minor uproar, but was allowed because the rule spelling out the terms of the 2018 draft did not pre-empt managers from selecting a last-place team during the first round. The draft selections for 2018 were as follows:

|-----------------|-----------------------|
| 1 Road Warriors | New York Yankees |
| 2 Whateverers | Houston Astros |
| 3 Beefers | Cleveland Indians |
| 4 Otters | Philadelphia Phillies |
| 5 Taz Devils | Boston Red Sox |
| 6 Road Warriors | Baltimore Orioles |
| 7 Whateverers | San Francisco Giants |

First half, 2018

Beefers 27, Taz Devils 3

Beefers 3b Justin Turner slams four HR; Beefers total homers, 30 hits in blowout win against Tazzies.

The Beefers (2-1) piled up 30 hits and 10 home runs in a record-setting 27-3 runaway win over the Taz Devils (1-2) in the league's first series of the 2018 campaign.

The Beefs started the carnage in the top of the first, pushing over six runs against Devils starter Drew Pomeranz. Justin Turner homered to add run another in the third. The Beefers then pounded Pomeranz for nine more runs in the fourth, with 2b Jose Ramirez homering twice in the inning, including a grand slam home run, to drive in six runs in the inning, to give the Beefs a 16-0 lead after four innings.

Even after Pomeranz mercifully departed the mound, the Beefs went on to score another 11 runs, finishing off with four runs each of the final two innings as Devils infielder Scooter Gennett took over pitching duties to preserve the Devils bullpen.

When the dust finally settled, Beefers 3b Justin Turner finished with a league record-tying four home runs and seven RBIs, 2b Jose Ramirez went 5-7 with two home runs, RF J.D. Martinez slugged two homers and drove in six runs, while SS Carlos Correa and 1b Eric Hosmer both belted solo blasts. Beefers starter Corey Kluber, who gave up only four hits and three runs, even got into the act, going 4-6, scoring a run and driving in a run. LF Kris Bryant and C Willson Contreras also notched four hits Pomeranz, who ran into the Beefers hurricane in the first four innings, gave up 15 hits and 16 runs, all earned, including six home runs. He also walked six batters.

* The original Platoon franchise was active through 2002, after which time the franchise was redispersed when Joe Passiatore dropped out of the league. The Platoon II franchise represents the Merchantainers (later Travelers) franchise formed in the Dispersal Entry Draft of 2003. Passiatore took over the franchise in 2006 and re-named the Traveler franchise as the Platoon, which is identified as Platoon II above for purposes of clarity.
