Otters once again rule the roost; win fifth championship highlighted by incredible second half run

Jonathan Stilwell's Otters, viewed as the odds-on favorite to win the 2024 OAPBA title, but it wasn't the easy road that was forecast.

The Otters finished tied for second in the first half with a 22-18 record, but roared to life in the second half, recording an extraordinary 32-8 highlighted by a 17-game win streak that was the second longest win streak in league history.

In the '24 World Series, the Otters faced off with Craig Dolan's Tsunamis and won in seven games, taking the finale 6-5 with a clutch ninth inning performance by Corbin Carroll, who tied the game with two out in the bottom of the ninth and set the stage for a game-winning RBI single by longtime Otter great Freddie Freeman to drive in the winning run.

The Otters 2024 title was the fifth overall for the team and the fifth for Stilwell, who has managed the team since formation in 2011.

For the Tsunamis, it was yet another season ending in heartbreak; their third World Series loss in the past four seasons. The Asians previously were swept in the World Series by the Otters in 2020, lost to the Beefers 4-1 in 2021 in the earlier two World Series setbacks. Prior to Dolan's assumption of management of the franchise, the team had participated in only one World Series, in 2006, losing to Dave Larson's Taz Devils in six games.

OAPBA's 37th season once again set a record for the longest in OAPBA history, starting with a series between the Beefers and Taz Devils on Monday, March 25 and not ending until Saturday, Jan. 26, 2025, a total of 307 days, four days longer than the 2023 season, which took 303 days to play out.

Craig's Asian Tsunamis captured the first half title with a 25-15 record, finishing three games in front of Walt Taylor's defending champion Whatever's (22-18) and the Otters (22-18).

The second half belong totally to the Otters. After a 5-3 start, the Otters caught fire, winning nine of their next ten before Devils lefty Clayton Kershaw combined with the Devils bullpen to blank the Otters 3-0. After winning four more in a row before a 9-2 setback from the cellar-dwelling Beefers, the Otters won their next 17 games in a row before dropping both ends of their home-and-away series to the Whatever's to end the half. When the dust cleared from the wreckage, the Otters had won the second half by an astounding 12 games with the Tsunamis, at 20-20, finishing second.

2024 Rule updates

1. Outfielder use was expanded to allow OFs to play their total pro-rated games in any OF position they played, using a 20 percent requirement to qualify for the unlimited play at qualified OF positions.
2. Minor modifications were made for the use of blowout relievers and the employment of relief pitchers as starting pitchers.
3. The entire Rule Book was overhauled and updated to include all recent rules modifications and rules adopted in the past four years.

2024 Draft

The 2024 draft was held on Saturday, March 2, once again conducted at the Winter Park Public Library. The first-round picks in the 2024 draft:

- | | |
|--------------|---------------------------|
| 1 Beefers | OF Julio Rodriguez, Sea |
| 2 Otters | IF Gunnar Henderson, Balt |
| 3 Taz Devils | C Adley Rutschman, Balt |
| 4 Tsunamis | P George Kirby, Sea |
| 5 Whatever's | SS Bobby Witt, KC |

The Beefers selected CF Julio Rodriguez as the first pick in the '24 draft. Rodriguez had a solid season for the last-place Beefs, hitting .253 with 13 homers while serving as the team's leadoff batter.

2024 First Half: Tsunamis once again capture first half title

Craig Dolan's Tsunamis got off to a fast start in the first half and were able to race to a 19-6 record before suffering a five-game losing streak. Closing with six wins in their final 10 games, the Asians finished at 25-15, three games in front of the Otters and Whatevers, who tied for second place at 22-18.

The pre-season favorite Otters got off to a 4-1 start, including three wins over the Beefers, but then lost eight of their next eight games to fall below .500 at 6-7. After taking five of their next six from the Devils and Beefers, the Otters improved to 11-8, but they once again regressed, losing six in a row, including both ends of their home-series at home against the

Whatevers, falling to 11-14, which put them well behind the Tsunamis.

As the first half wound to a close, the Otters finally got on track, winning six of seven to once again climb over .500 at 17-15 and closing the half out with five wins in their final seven games to finish 22-18.

The defending champion Whatevers got off to a disappointing 4-10 start, but rebounded to win 11 of their next 13 games to climb to 13-12. After losing six of their next seven to once again fall below .500, the Whats put on a stirring 17-4 run to get back in the race, but fell back after losing three of four at home against the Tsunamis and split their home-and-away series with the Tsunamis to knock them out of contention.

Frank Fumai's Taz Devils started out 13-9 in the first half, including a five-game win streak, but only won five of their final 16 games to finish fourth in the first half standings at 19-21.

Rod Caborn's Beefers did not show any improvement from their 2023 last place finish. After an encouraging 7-7 start, the Beefs only won five of their final 21 starts to finish in the cellar at 12-28, thirteen games out of first place. Included in the meltdown were losing streaks of four, five, and six games.

2024 Second Half: All Otters, all the way

The Otters stumbled out of the gate to start the second half, losing to the Beefers 5-2 and 16-4, but then they took off....and never looked back.

After their inauspicious start against the Beefers, the Otters went 32-6 for the rest of the second to win by 12 games over the first half winner Tsunamis. After winning 11 their next 14 games, the Otters were well out in front and then they managed to play even better, winning their next 17 in a row, the longest winning streak in the league since the Highlanders won 21 straight over the 1998-1999 seasons. The only minor blot on the Otters remarkable second half run was a home-and-away series loss to the Whatevers to end the second half.

The Tsunamis, with high hopes they could duplicate their first half title and avoid a World Series, lost three of four to the Otters to start the second half, but rebounded to win seven of their next nine games to improve to 11-5. From that point forward, however, it was all downhill. The Asians lost six of 10 against the Taz Devils and ran into the Otters buzzsaw, losing four in a row at Oshkosh Field and then dropping both ends of their home-and-away aeries against the Otters to finish the second half at 20-20.

The Taz Devils shuffled through an 18-22 second half, losing eight of their first 12 games then reversing course and winning nine of 12 to climb to 17-15. After that, the Devils fell off the cliff, losing seven of eight, including a sweep at the hands of the Otters. After knocking off the Whats 8-3 and 8-5, the Devils lost their four final contests in the second half to the Whats, finishing 18-22.

The Whatevers won four of five to get underway in the second half but from that point on, it was all downhill. After losing fourteen of their next 17 games, capped by a seven-game losing streak, the Whats dropped to 7-15. A 4-3 win over the Devils temporary stopped the bleeding, but the Whats lost the next five in a row, won a 6-5 decision against the Tsunamis and then lost five more in a row to make their record 9-25, dropping them into last place. The Whatevers second half ended on a positive note, however, with four wins against the Devils at home and a 5-4 road win against the Devils to give the Whats a six-game win streak to end the half and tie the Beefs for fourth place.

The Beefers split their first series in the second half with the Otters, but immediately saw their fortunes slide, losing eight of their next nine to fall to 3-8. After a 4-0 win against the Tsunamis, the Beefs lost six of their next seven games, scoring only 11 runs in a five-game losing streak, dropping their record to 5-13. Facing another last place finish, the Beefs somehow gathered themselves and pulled off a six-game win streak, raising faint hopes of a .500 finish in the second half. Alas, it was not to be, as the Beefs dropped 11 of their final 14 to finish in a tie for the cellar position with the Whatevers at 15-25.

Beefers RF Mookie Betts tied the year-old record of Devils 3b Rafael Devers by homering in six consecutive games over a six-game stretch of games vs. the Whatevers in the second half.

Betts streak began in Game 59, a 7-6 loss to the Whats and continued through Game 64, a 4-0 win over the Whatevers. During his streak, the Beefs went 5-1, their best stretch of play over the past two seasons.

During his streak, Betts hit .500 (12-24) with an OBP of .586. He totaled seven HRs and 15 RBIs over the six games.

2024 World Series

Tsunamis come within one out of winning their first title, but Otters dramatic ninth inning rally in Game Seven lifts them to their fifth championship

Otters manager Jonathan Stillwell won his fifth OAPBA championship with his team's win in the '24 World Series vs the Tsunamis.

For the second time in five seasons, the Otters and Tsunamis faced off in a Game Seven and, like 2020, when a Byron Buxton error handed the championship to the Otters, the Otters once again prevailed, winning the finale in dramatic fashion in the this time via a game-tying home run by Corbin Carroll and RBI single by Freddie Freeman in the bottom of the ninth.

The Asians led in six of the seven games. Only one game was decided by more than two runs. A pattern that repeated itself was the Tsunamis grabbing an early lead and the Otters having to make up ground and come from behind against what turned out to be a beleaguered Tsunami bullpen.

The Otters outhit the Tsunamis .256 to .206 and outhomered the Asians 11-8. The Otters pitching also stood out in contrast to the Tsunamis. The Otters bullpen ERA of 1.38 for 13 innings was a marked contrast to the Tsunamis bullpen ERA of 5.04 for 25 innings.

The Series MVP was Otters SS Corey Seager, who pounded out eight doubles, a home run and eight RBIs. Other Otters standouts included Corbin Carroll, whose ninth inning heroics were critical to two of the Otters wins, and reliever Bryan Abreu, who won two games and allowed no runs.

Game 1 Otters 5, Tsunamis 4; Otters come from behind to take opener

The visiting Tsunamis scored two runs in the first two innings off Otters starter Brandon Webb, including an RBI double by Josh Naylor and a solo HR by RF Adolis Garcia. Webb settled down after the shaky start and matched zeroes with Tsunamis starter Chris Bassitt through the sixth inning.

With the Tsunamis leading 2-0 in the seventh, Otters 1b Freddie Freeman cut the lead in half with a home run, sending Bassitt to the showers. The Tsunamis rebounded in the eighth with a homer by C Yainer Diaz and and RBI double by Michael Harris to go in front 4-1.

In the bottom of the eighth, a walk and a HBP set up a clutch three-run home run by Otters SS Corey Seager to tie the game. Otters ace reliever Bryan Abreu came on to pitch a scoreless ninth to keep the score deadlocked at 4-4.

In the bottom of the ninth, Otters C Cal Raleigh, who had entered the game to slow down the Tsunami running attack, opened the bottom of the ninth with a back-side "1," but it was knocked down to a double. The next batter, Corbin Carroll, who had yet to reach base, doubled Raleigh home to give the Otters a come-from-behind opening game win.

Corbin Carroll's ninth inning RBI double was the game winner for the Otters in Game One.

Tsu 4-6-1 L- Jason Foley 0-1. HR Adolis Garcia 1.
Otters 5-8-1 W- Bryan Abreu 1-0. HR Freddie Freeman #1, Corey Seager #1.

Game 2 Otters 7, Tsunamis 0; Otters' Zach Eflin clamps down on Tsunami offense

Zach Eflin combined with Adam Ottavino and Jordan Romano to blank the Tsunamis 7-0 in Game Two.

After two quiet innings to begin Game Two, the Otters offense lit up Tsunami starter George Kirby in the third with Manny Machado and Christian Yelich both hitting homers to make it 3-0. In the fourth, the Otters added two more runs on four singles, including RBIs from Manny Machado and Sean Murphy. The Otters increased the lead to 7-0 in the fifth on a two-run homer from DH Ronald Acuña.

Otters starter Zach Eflin was outstanding, going seven shutout innings, giving up only two hits and fanning 10 batters as the Otters took a 2-0 lead in the '24 World Series.

Tsu 0-3-1 L- George Kirby 0-1.

Otters 7-12-0 W- Zach Eflin 1-0. HR Chr. Yelich #1, Manny Machado #1, Ronald Acuña #1.

Game 3 Tsunamis 4, Otters 2; Asians bullpen shuts down Otters after Tsunamis take early lead

Moving to the Tsunamis home grounds, the Otters scored a run in the top of the first and looked like they could jump on Asians starter Luis Castillo for more, but a brewing rally abruptly was cut short when Ronald Acuña was forced out at third base to end the inning.

The Asians offense then came to life against Otters starter Justin Steele, with the Diaz boys, Yainer and Yandy, both homering, followed by a two-run homer by SS JP Crawford to put the Tsunamis ahead 4-1.

Tsunamis starter Luis Castillo kept the Otters off balance into the sixth, when Corey Seager and Kyle Tucker hit back-to-back doubles to cut the Asians lead to 4-2. Brusdar Graterol, Jason Foley and Camilo Doval, however, came out of the Asian's bullpen to keep the Otters scoreless over the final three innings.

The Tsunami win cut the Otters series lead to 2-1.

Otters 2-8-1 L- Zac Gallen 0-1.

Tsu 4-9-0 W- Luis Castillo 1-0. HR Yanier Diaz #1, Yandy Diaz #1, JP Crawford #1.

Tsunami SS JP Crawford's two-run homer off Zac Gallen in the fourth proved the difference in the game as the Asians won their first game in the '25 World Series.

Game 4 Tsunamis 4, Otters 2; Max Fried shuts down Otters, Asians even series at 2-2

Tsunami lefty Max Fried won Game Three throwing five shutout innings as the Asians won 4-2.

The Tsunamis evened the '24 World Series at two games apiece, taking a 3-0 lead in the second and cruising to a second straight 4-2 win behind lefty Max Fried.

The Otters tried to use their speed to get back into the game, but were thwarted in the second and third innings when Luis Robert and Corbin Carroll were thrown out trying to steal by Tsu C William Contreras

Josh Naylor opened the scoring for the Asians in the second with a solo homer off the league's winningest pitcher, Otters lefty Justin Steele. Back-to-back doubles from Michael Harris and Luis Arraez, followed by an RBI hit from Yandy Diaz added two more runs to put the Tsunamis ahead 3-0.

The Otters finally got to Fried in the sixth when Corey Seager doubled home Sean Murphy, but the Asians countered with in the home seventh on a Juan Soto RBI to make it 4-1 in favor of the Tsunamis.

Otter C Sean Murphy homered late to add some drama to the game, but a subsequent Otter rally fell short and the Asians held on to win 4-2, tying the series at two games apiece.

Otters 2-7-0 L- Justin Steele 0-1. HR Sean Murphy #1.

Tsu 4-8-1 W- Max Fried 1-0. Sv Austin Pruitt 1. HR Josh Naylor #1.

Game 5 Otters 4, Tsunamis 3; Otters rally late to edge Tsunamis, re-take Series lead

With the Tsunamis in their final home game in the Series, Game 5 was a repeat matchup from the opener with Brandon Webb on the mound for the Otters and Chris Bassitt starting for the Asians.

Otters CF Corbin Carroll led off the game with a single, but was once again thrown out attempting to steal second as the Otters again tried to take a lead using their speed.

The Tsunamis were quick out of the gates in the home first when Royce Lewis, Naylor, and Luis Arraez all singled, producing two runs. Webb and Bassitt then settled in and neither team threatened through the fifth with the Tsunamis continuing to hold a 2-0 lead.

Otters SS Corey Seager hit two doubles in the Otters 4-3 win in Game Five, giving the Otters a 3-2 edge in the Series.

Carroll then bypassed the need to steal by launching a solo homer to cut the lead to 2-1. Corey Seager (who had four "1"s knocked down to doubles in the series), followed with a double, but was stranded at second as the Tsunamis maintained their slim lead.

In the top of the eighth, the Otters rattled off three singles, followed by a Seager double to bring in three runs, and put the Furry Boys in front by a 4-2 score.

The Tsunamis fought back against Otters closer Felix Bautista in the bottom of the ninth. Pinch-hitters Jarren Duran and Austin Riley both doubled to cut the lead to 4-3 before a grounder to short ended the game and give the Otters a 3-2 lead in the Series.

Otters 4-9-1 W- Bryan Abreu 2-0. Sv Felix Bautista 1. HR Corbin Carroll #1.
Tsu 3-8-1 L- Danny Coulombe 0-1.

Game 6 Tsunamis 7, Otters 4; Tsunamis rough up Zac Eflin enroute to Series-tying victory

Reliever Austin Pruitt picked up the win for the Tsunamis in Game Six, a 7-4 triumph for the Asians tying the Series 3-3.

With their backs to the wall, down three games to two, the Tsunamis broke Game Six open with three runs in the eighth to win 7-4 and even the Series at three games apiece.

Returning to Oshkosh Field, home of the Otters, both teams scored in the second and third innings as the score evened at 3-3. The Asians touched Otters starter Zac Eflin for RBI hits from JP Crawford and Luis Arraez while the Otters jumped on Tsunami starter George Kirby with homers by Freddie Freeman and Sean Murphy, who each hit their second home run in the Series.

After a sac fly by Josh Naylor put the Tsunamis ahead 4-3 in the fifth, the Asians opened the floodgates in the eighth, sending nine batters to the plate, adding three more runs to increase their lead to 7-3. The Otters scored a run in the bottom of the inning, but it was too little, too late as the Tsunamis sent the 2024 Series to a championship-deciding seventh game.

Tsu 7-9-1 W- Austin Pruitt 1-0. Sv Camilo Doval.
Otters 4-10-1 L- Zack Eflin 1-1. HR Freddie Freeman #2, Sean Murphy #2

Game 7 Otters 6, Tsunamis 5; Otters ninth inning rally lifts them to championship

Game Seven started out looking like this would, indeed, be the Tsunamis year to capture their first championship, but like five years ago, the Otters came back in dramatic fashion to capture their fifth championship under manager Jonathan Stilwell.

The Tsunamis started out like a house afire, jumping on Otters ace Zac Gallen in the first for three runs behind a Juan Soto RBI double and a two-run homer by power-hitting Royce Lewis.

In the third, the Tsunamis made it 5-0 when Soto doubled and Royce Lewis followed with his second home run of the game. The Otters, meanwhile, kept hanging around, with a solo HR by Ronald Acuna in the second and another run in the fourth when Corey Seager doubled home Christian Yelich, to cut the Tsunami lead to 5-2.

As the Asians' bats quieted down, the Otters put runners in scoring position in the fifth and sixth innings, but were unable to push a run across.

With the Otters chances beginning to look dim in the bottom of the eighth, Otters Freddie Freeman and Corey Seager doubled to cut the lead to 5-3 and Kyle Tucker brought across another run with a sac fly to cut the Asians lead to 5-4 with one inning.

The Tsunamis retired the first two batters in the bottom of the ninth, but down to their last batter, Otters CF Corbin Carroll jumped on a Kevin Kelly pitch and homered to tie the game at 5-5.

Christian Yelich then drew a walk and stole second base. With the runner going on the pitch, longtime Otter great Freddie Freeman added to his already revered splace in Otter history with a clutch single through the infield scoring Yelich and giving the Otters their fifth championship.

Tsu 5-6-0 L- Kevin Kelly 0-1. HR Royce Lewis 2 HRs #1-2.
Otters 6-11-0 W- Felix Bautista 1-0. HR Corbin Carroll #2 Ronald Acuña #2.

Longtime Otter great Freddie Freeman drove in the winning run in the bottom of the ninth to climax a come-from-behind rally and win the championship for the Otters.

World Series notes

- The Tsunami outfield trio of Juan Soto, Michael Harris, and Adolis Garcia hit only a combined .133 (8-60) in the Series, hampering the Asians offense.
- A superb performance by the Otters bullpen made a significant difference in the Series outcome. The Otters bullpen gave up only two runs in 13 innings for a 1.38 ERA while the Tsunamis bullpen yielded 14 runs in 25 innings for a 5.04 ERA.
- The Otters speed, one of their most outstanding offensive characteristics in the 2024 regular season, did not manifest itself on the bases as expected. OF Corbin Carroll was thrown out twice by Tsunami C William Contreras and speedster Luis Robert was also thrown out by Diaz.
- Corbin Carroll may have been slowed down on the bases, but he was at his best when the chips were down in the Series. Carroll drove in the winning run in the ninth in Game One and, with the Otters down by one run with two out in the ninth, homered to tie Game Seven, which the Otters won 6-5.
- Series MVP was Otters SS Corey Seager, who was unstoppable, hitting .480 in the Series, including nine extra base hits. Seager's slugging total for the Series was .980

Tsunami IF Royce Lewis was limited to only three appearances in the Series, but he made his presence felt when he was on the field, hitting .417. Lewis's two home and five RBIs accounted Unheralded Otters relievers Justin Topa (left) and Bryan Abreu (right) both threw four scoreless innings, allowing only a combined three hits, keeping the Tsunamis off the scoreboard late in games in the Series.

Otters C Sean Murphy slammed two home runs in the 2024 World Series, but both round-trippers occurred in two of the Otters three losses.

2024 OAPBA ALL STAR TEAM

The 2024 OAPBA All Star team featured league Tsunamis LF Juan Soto, who earned MVP honors for the second time in three years. Soto was also the league's MVP in 2022.

Soto was the heart of the Tsunami offense and piled up impressive numbers for 2025: runner up for the batting title (.309), led the league in OB (.416) and base hits (93), and bases on balls (57), total bases (187), ranked third in home runs (23) and slugging (.621) and was fifth in RBIs with 54.

Otters 1b Freddie Freeman and C Sean Murphy were voted All-Stars for the second straight season, with Freeman making the All-Star team for the third time in his storied career with the Otters. Whatever hitting stalwart Shohei Ohtani also earned All-Stars for the second consecutive season.

Beefers RF Mookie Betts, who finished third in the MVP voting, earned All-Star honors for the third time, having been on the All-Star team in 2017 and 2019.

First-timers on the All-Star team were batting champ Shohei Ohtani of the Whatevers, Devils 2b Ozzie Albies, Otters SS and World Series MVP Corey Seager, Tsunami 3b Austin Riley, Otters CF Corbin Carroll, Cy Young winner Zac Gallen of the Otters and Felix Bautista of the Otters. Seager joined brother Kyle Seager, who made the All-Star team in 2015 and tied for MVP honors with Mike Trout, who was with the Otters in 2016.

Soto, Freeman and Ohtani were unanimous selections for the '25 All-Star team. Gallen, the '24 Cy Young winner, was runner up for the Cy Young award in 2023.

Unanimous selections in the 2023 voting were Freddie Freeman and Yordan Alvarez. Whatever Shohei Ohtani finished second in the voting for the Most Valuable Player and Otters 10-game winner Zac Gallen was runner up for the Cy Young award.

OAPBA 2024 INDIVIDUAL TEAM REPORTS

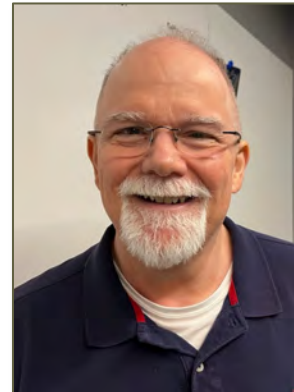

Otters 54-26, .675, +9 games. First half 22-18, .550, -3 games. Second half 32-8 .800, +9 games.

The Otters entered the '24 campaign as the odds-on favorites to win the league title, with no apparent weaknesses in their lineup, built with a veteran lineup and solid pitching.

The rosy forecast, however, took an ominous turn in the first half. After winning four of their five games, the furry Otters lost six of their next eight contests, falling to 6-7, enabling the Tsunamis to slip past them into the lead.

The Otters made up some of the ground with five wins in their next six games to improve to 12-8 but still remained three-and-a-half games behind the Asians. Then disaster struck, as the Otters suffered a six-game losing streak, starting with a 4-3 loss to the Beefers and ending by losing three of four to the WhatEVERs, including a 14-5 drubbing in the final game of the streak. The slump dropped them to 12-14 and appeared to knock them out of the first half race.

The Otters were not done, however, and went on an 11-4 tear to finish the first half, including three wins over the Tsunamis and four wins over the Taz Devils. Their record was 22-18 for the first half, tied with the WhatEVERs for second place, three games behind the Tsunamis.

Otters mgr Jonathan Stilwell

In the second half, the Otters stumbled out of the gate, dropping a pair to the lowly Beefers 5-2 and 16-4, but from that point forward it was all Otters, as they went 32-6 the rest of the way to post a 32-8 record in one of the best halves in OAPBA history.

Included in the Otters historic run to the second half title was a 17-game win streak, the second longest win streak in OAPBA history, along with a six-game win streak. Including their 11-4 finish to the first half and their 32-8 second half record, the Otters went 43-13, .768 over their final 56 games, one of the most outstanding runs in OAPBA's 37 seasons.

The Otters ranked second in team batting (.246) and tied for first, with the Tsunamis, in OBP at .319. They led the league in scoring (414 runs), triples (20), home runs (135) and exhibited amazing team speed, stealing 142 bases, far above anyone else in the league and only seven short of the league record of 149, set by the Platoon in 1991.

There were no weaknesses in the Otters offense lineup. The primary driving force was DH Ronald Acuna, who led the league in RBIs (65) while hitting .269 with 18 home runs. All-time Otter great Freddie Freeman led OAPBA with 28 doubles, hit 10 HR and 37 RBIs and even got into the stolen base routine with 16 steals. RF Kyle Tucker (.273, 14 HR, 47 RBIs), SS Corey Seager (.252, 18 HR, 48 RBIs), LF Christian Yelich (.278, 10 HR) CF Corbin Carroll (.257, league-best 52 SB) and 3b Manny Machado (.252, 13 HR, 38 RBIs) kept enormous pressure on opposing pitchers all season long. Even C Sean Murphy got into the act, hitting .238 with 10 HR. The only Otter regular who had an off year was Ketel Marte, who hit only .183, but still delivered 11 HRs and 32 RBIs.

The Otters starting pitching staff went 38-19, 3.78, easily the best in the league and more than a half-run per game better than the second place Taz Devils starting pitcher rotation of 4.35. Justin Steele (10-3, 4.21) was the league's winningest pitcher while Merrill Kelly was undefeated at 7-0, .416. Logan Webb (7-4, 3.15) was outstanding, as were Zac Gallen (7-6, 3.08) and Zach Eflin (6-5, 4.18).

The relief corps was led by closer Felix Bautista, who was almost unhittable with a 0.70 ERA and 19 saves, giving only seven hits in 28 innings and was 5-1. Andres Munoz (5-0, 3.81), Bryan Abreu (4-3, 31.6), Colin Poche (2.25) and Matt Brash (3.00) rounded out an extraordinarily tough bullpen that consistently put the brakes on opposing offenses and kept the Otters in the lead.

Asian Tsunamis 45-35, .563, - 4 games. First half 25-15, .625, +5 games. Second half 20-20, .500, -4 games.

In a scene that has played itself out repeatedly over the past few seasons, the Tsunamis once again found themselves on the brink of their first championship, only to fall short, coming to within one inning of winning the '24 World Series, losing in the bottom of the ninth as the Otters came from behind for a clinching Game Seven victory.

The Tsunamis punched their ticket for their fourth World Series appearance in five seasons with a 25-15 record in the first half. The Asians served notice early that they would be tough, winning eight of their first 10 games before back-to-back losses to the WhatEVERs. They rebounded from the pair of setbacks with a four-game sweep over the Beefers, a split with the Taz Devils and wins in both ends of their home-and-away series with the Otters to improve to an impressive record.

Tsunamis mgr. Craig Dolan

Things cooled off after the Asians fast start as the Tsunamis lost five in a row, including the last three games of their home series with the Otters and ends of their home-and-away to the Devils, including a 4-0 combined shutout loss to the Devils. With their big lead still intact, the Asians regained their footing, taking four of six from the Whats, the only real competition in the first half, and splitting with the Devils to finish their conquest of the first half at 45-35, three games in front of the Whats and Otters, both tied for second at 22-18.

The second half started much like the first half, with the Asians once again starting fast and notching a 13-5 record before an 8-0 shutout loss to the Whats. They reeled off five more wins in their next seven games to improve to 16-8.

Despite the Otters fast start in the second half, the Tsunamis still had a chance to win the second half and the league title. However, the bottom dropped out for the Asians, in one of the epic collapses in OAPBA history, losing 11 of their final fourteen games.

Playing ten consecutive games against the Devils, the Asians dropped four of six to fall to 20-14. Still in the race with an outside chance to put away the second half title, the Tsunamis faced off with the red-hot Otters for their final six games of the season...and lost all six games, four of them by one run. The Asians wound up with a disappointing 20-20 record, 12 games behind the Otters.

The Asians led the league in hitting (.257) and relied on a power-packed lineup that was led by Juan Soto (.309, league-leading 93 hits, .416 OBP, and 57 BB, along with 23 home runs and 54 RBIs), 3b Austin Riley (21 HR, 58 RBIs) and RF Adolis Garcia (16 HR, 39 RBIs). Reliable 1b Luis Arraez (.293, 36 RBIs) enjoyed another outstanding campaign. The catching duo of William Contreras (.305) and Yannier Diaz were outstanding on defense and OF Nelson Velasquez hit .268 with 21 RBIs in a part-time role. Hard-hitting Royce Lewis only played in 29 games, but when he played, he stood out, hitting 10 homers and driving in 22 runs. Pinch-running specialist Bryson Stott was 25-3 on the basepaths and proved particularly useful at the end of close games when one run was needed to tie or win a game.

Chris Bassitt (9-5, 3.58) picked up in an off-season trade with the Beefers, was the Tsunamis pitching ace with the second highest win total in the league. Number two starter George Kirby (7-3, .401) exhibited exceptional control, walking only 13 batters in 87 innings. Corbin Burnes (5-4), Bailey Ober (4-2), and Luis Castillo (4-5) all performed well.

Dolan called on his bullpen for 216 appearances, the most in the league, with Brusdar Graderol (1.81, team high 8 saves), Kevin Kelly (2.27) and Jason Foley (2.42) all performing well. Camilo Doval (3.78, 7 saves) was not particularly effective and ceded his closer role to Graderol.

The Tsunami defense was the one weak point in the team's makeup. The Asians committed 71 error, nineteen more than the Beefers, who had the second-highest error total in the league with 52 miscues.

Whatever's 37-43, .463, - 17 games. First half 22-18, .550, -3 games. Second half 15-25, -17 games.

The defending champion Whatever's had a winning first half, finishing three games behind the Tsunamis, but their fortunes headed south in the second stanza, falling to 15-25, tying the Whats with the lowly Beefers for last place in the second half. Overall, the Whats finished at 37-43, tied with the Taz Devils for third place in the cumulative standings.

For the second straight season, the remarkable Shohei Ohtani was the driving force behind the Whatever's offense. Ohtani slugged 23 homers and drove in 56 runs while finishing runner-up in the batting race with a sparkling .327 average.

Longtime What standouts SS Francisco Lindor (.262, 13 HR, 32 RBIs), 3b Alex Bregman (10 HR, 37 RBIs) and Yordan Alvarez (16 HR, 37 RBIs) all had solid seasons. Mike Trout, obtained from the Otters in a 2023 deal, played only in the first half, but he made his presence felt hitting .256 with 12 HRs and 29 RBIs.

A pleasant surprise was the performance of draft pick Luke Raley, who hit .276 with 10 HR and 27 RBIs, as well as leading the league in HBP with 15.

The Achilles heel for the Whats was the sub-par performance of their starting pitching. OPABA great Justin Verlander had a winning 7-4 record, but his ERA was 4.56. Kyle Bradish was 7-5, and had a high 6.41 ERA. Kevin Gausman had a disappointing 3-10 campaign and Ohtani was only 3-4, but had a solid 3.09 ERA. Brandon

Whatever's manager Walt Taylor

Woodruff was only 1-3, 4.41 and Shane McClanahan was 2-6, 7.07. Sandy Alcantra, a great performer in 2023, was able to make only one appearance in 2024, winning his only start.

Emmanuel Clase picked up only four saves in 2024 with a 3.64 ERA. Three middle relievers stood out for the Whats: Chris Martin, who had a 1.58 ERA and Jose LeClerc, who was 1.53, both with 26 appearances were outstanding and "Little Robert" Stephenson had a 1.89 ERA in 28 games.

The Whats' high point of the 2024 season may have come in the 2024 draft, where they picked up budding superstar Bobby Witt, Jr., who will debut in the 2025 season.

Taz Devils manager Frank Fumai

Taz Devils 37-43, -17 games. First half 19-21, .475, - 3 games. Second half 18-22, .450, - 14 games

The Taz Devils had a disappointing 2024 season, falling below .500 for the second straight season.

In the first half, the Devils immediately got off to a fast start, going 7-4, but fell back to 7-7, .500, after dropping three of four to the Otters. After splitting a four-game series at the Tsunamis and losing the opener of their series at the Beefers, the Tazmen won their next three games and then capture both ends of their home-and-away series v. the Tsunamis to improve to 14-10 with sixteen games left to catch the first-half leading Tsunamis.

Instead, the wheels fell off for the Devils as they went 5-11 for the remainder of the first half to finish below .500 at 19-21, six games behind the Tsunamis.

Things failed to turn around in the second half. Things started well enough with three wins in four games at home against the hapless Beefers, but the Devils then quickly fell out of the race, losing seven of their next eight, including their home-and-away to the last-place Beefs, to drop to 4-8. Things steadied themselves in the Devils next three series, winning nine of 12 to climb back over .500 at 13-11, but by that time, there was simply too much ground to make up as the Otters, 24-6 at the same juncture, were running away with the second half race.

With race essentially over, the Devils fell apart over the last sixteen games, going 4-12, including a four-game losing streak to end the second half at 18-22, a distant 14 games behind the champion Otters.

The Tazzies offense was once again centered around Aaron Judge, who hit a team high .271 and .388 OBP, hit 26 homers, second in the league behind Mookie Betts, tied for third in OAPBA with 58 RBIs and tied with Shohei Ohtani for the league lead league in slugging (.693). 2b Ozzie Albies was a pleasant surprise hitting .232 with 16 homers and 45 RBIs.

Beyond Judge and Albies, however, there was a huge drop off in the Devils attack. 3b Rafael Devers (.225, 17 HR, 36 RBIs) and DH Pete Alonso hit 15 HRs, but his only .189.

SS Xander Bogaerts hit only .132, the worst batting adveage in the league among OAPBA regulars) and committed 11 errors. 1b Paul Goldschmidt, a standout performer in the past, had a miserable season, hitting only .172 and leading the league in strikeouts with 92 Ks. LF Randy Arozarena hit only .202 with a watery .289 OBP.

The Devils pitching was sound with newcomer Spencer Strider (5-6, 4.03) and hard-working Framber Valdez (5-7, 4.50) the two leading winners for the Devils starting rotation Gerritt Cole (4-6, 3.48) pitched well but frequently suffered from lack of offense. OAPBA great Clayton Kershaw (4-3, 3.38) pitched well, but could start only limited games. Zack Wheeler (4-5, 4.48) was only mediocre and high-round draft pick Tanner Bibee (2-4, 7.99) pitching only in the second half, was a disaster.

The Devils bullpen made only 169 appearances, the fewest by far, in the league and had a combined 4.03 ERA, but gave up only 14 home runs in 176 innings. Yennier Cano (3-1, 2.56 in 33 appearances) and Tim Mayza (3-3, 3.09 in 22 appearances) were the most effective relievers for the Devils. Devin Williams, who was looked at for great things out of the bullpen, was frequently roughed up and wound up with a puffy 4.30 ERA.

Beefers 27-53, .338, -27 games. First half 12-28, .300, -13 games Second half 15-25, .375, -17 games

The Beefers once again held up the rest of the league in 2024, finishing last in the first half and tied for last in the second half. The Beefs never came close to contending in either half.

The only excitement for Beefers fans was the outstanding performance of RF Mookie Betts, who led the league in HRs with 27 round-trippers while hitting .284 and driving in 63 runs, second in the league.

Beyond Betts, who spent most of the year in the leadoff slot to give him more opportunities, the only other Beefers to show much at the plate was 1b Matt Olson hit 20 homers, with 52 RBIs but hit only .217 and fanned 74 times and number one draft pick Julio Rodriguez showed potential with a .253, 13 HR season.

The rest of the offense was missing in action.

Three regulars hit under .200; C Willson Contreras hit only .189, longtime 2b Marcus Semien only managed to hit .184, and DH Bryce Harper was a disappointment with a weak .190 season. Longtime 3b Jose Ramirez had a second straight off-year (.219, 7 HR, 24 RBIs) and never really got untracked. SS Bo Bichette, who was expected to help bolster the offense, instead led the league in errors (18) while hitting an unproductive .257 with only three HR and 15 RBIs.

On the positive side, light-hitting backup IF Mauricio Dubon hit .271 in a reserve role and OF Chas McCormick, hitting primarily against lefties, hit .286.

The Beefers pitching was dead last in the league with a team ERA of 4.83, allowing 395 runs. Righthander Sonny Gray (5-7, 3.61) was the only reliable starter on the Beefers starting corps. Lefty Jordan Montgomery (4-8, 5.42) was pounded with regularity and Aaron Civale (3-4, 4.18) was only able to pitch in the second half. OAPBA great Max Scherzer was a disaster (1-7, 6.96) and the trio of Shane Bieber, Eduardo Rodriguez and Pablo Lopez combined for only three wins.

The hard-working Beefer bullpen had a combined 4.18 ERA. Closer Raisel Iglesias (5-4, 3.04) had to take over the closer role from Evan Phillips (2-4, 4.23 with seven HR allowed in the second half). Erik Swanson (2.70) and A.J. Minter (3.42) were reliable in most appearances.

Beefers mgr Rod Caborn

Befer reliever Evan Phillips, counted on as the Beefers closer for the '24 season, was a bust and lost his closer job to Raisel Iglesias. For the season, Phillips had a 4.32 and he gave up seven home runs, all in the second half.

Devils CF Aaron Judge had an outstanding season, ranking second in the league with 26 HRs and fourth in RBIs with 58.

2024 OAPBA Notes

The 2024 season dragged on for a record 307 days, finally wrapping up with the 2024 World Series being staged over a two-day period in the third week in January.

Otters Freddie Freeman continued to move up the ladder in several all-time OAPBA stat categories. Freeman, who has held down first base for the Furries since 2012 has been the mainstay in leading the Otters five OAPBA championships (2015, 2018, 2020, 2022, 2024). He has won two league batting titles: 2016 (.297) and 2023 (.324).

Bruisers. The Whatever's set a new league team record for batters hit by pitches in 2024, recording 65 batters hit by pitches. The old record was 55 HBP, set by the Devils in 2000.

Leading the black and blue parade was Luke Raley (15 HBP, pictured right) along with Francisco Lindor and Yordan Alvarez, who were each plunked 11 times.

Devils CF Corbin Carroll led OAPBA with 52 stolen bases, the third highest total in league history, exceeded only by Devils Kenny Lofton's total of 67 SB in 1997 and Road Warriors Brett Gardner, who stole 54 SB in 2011.

Otters lefty Justin Steele was the league's winningest pitcher in 2024. Steele was 10-3 for the year, the only pitcher OAPBA to win ten games in the 2024 season.

Sonny Gray (5-7, 3.61) was the only effective starter for the last place Beefers.

Tsunami starter George Kirby had plenty to smile about in 2024, going 7-3, 4.01 and walking only seven batters in 87.7 innings.

OAPBA TRADE LOG 2024 SEASON

There was only one trade deal preceding and during the 2024 season. The Devils shipped Mookie Betts and their 14th round draft pick to the Beefers in exchange for CF Brandon Nimmo and the Beefers fourth-round pick. The Devils used the draft pick to acquire reliefer Yennier Cano, who had an outstanding season for the Devils while the rebuilding Beefers land outfielder Steven Kwan with their 14th round pick from the Devils

Date	Team/players traded	for	Team/players traded

2024 OAPBA DRAFT WINTER PARK LIBRARY

OAPBA conducted its 2024 draft on Saturday, March 2, 2024, at the Winter Park Public Library. The draft began promptly at 11:30 a.m. and was over in less than two hours.

For the '24 draft, each of OAPBA's five teams drafted from the American League. The draft order for the 2024 remained in reverse order of finish from the previous season.

Rod Caborn's Beefers, last-place finishers in the '23 season, picked Seattle CF Julio Rodriguez. Jonathan Stilwell's Otters, OAPBA's pre-season favorite for the '24 season, went for Orioles SS-3b Gunnar Henderson, followed by Frank Fumai's Taz Devils, who grabbed highly rated C Adley Rutschman of Baltimore.

Craig Dolan's Asian Tsunamis, with the fourth pick in the draft, was the first team to draft a pitcher, going for Seattle starter George Kirby. Walt Taylor's championship Whatever's then wasted no time taking generational player SS Bobby Witt of Kansas City to complete the first round.

OAPBA managers drafted 13 players from both Tampa Bay and Seattle. Craig Dolan selected five Mariners for the Tsunamis and Otters manager Jonathan Stilwell also took five Mariners, including three from the Seattle bullpen. Both Walt Taylor's Whatever's and Rod Caborn's Beefers each picked up four Tampa Bay Rays.

The Asians became the first team in OAPBA history to draft a pair of brothers, selecting Guardians 1b Josh Naylor and his brother, C Bo Naylor.

There were no pre-draft surprise trades preceding the 2024 draft. The only pre-draft trade occurred in early January, when the Beefers sent their fourth-round draft pick and Brandon Nimmo to the Taz Devils in exchange for OF Mookie Betts and the Devils 14th round draft pick.

The first-round picks in the OAPBA 2024 draft:

- 1 Beefers CF Julio Rodriguez, Seattle
- 2 Otters IF Gunnar Henderson, Baltimore
- 3 Taz Devils C Adley Rutschman, Baltimore
- 4 Tsunamis SP George Kirby, Seattle
- 5 Whatevers SS Bobby Witt, KC
